Workforce & Leadership Development

Turning restored families into community leaders.

Job readiness, youth mentorship, community engagement, and leadership pathways that equip families to serve, lead, and multiply hope for others.

Services under this pillar

Youth & Next-Generation Programs

Writing new stories with children and teens.

The next generation deserves more than survival — they deserve to lead. Our youth programs pair mentorship, academic support, and character development so children and teens can rise into confident, capable adults.

Offerings:

- One-on-one mentorship matching
- After-school academic support
- Character and leadership curriculum
- Summer enrichment and camps
- Scholarship pathways for higher education

Leadership Development

Empowering families to lead others.

Every family we serve carries a story that can help someone else rise. Leadership development turns lived experience into influence — training program graduates, volunteers, and community members to guide the next family through.

Offerings:

- Leadership training cohorts
- Public speaking and storytelling coaching
- Volunteer-to-leader development track
- Faith and character formation
- Ministry and nonprofit leadership prep

Community Engagement

Bringing neighbors, churches, and partners together.

Rebuilding families takes a whole community. We convene churches, businesses, and neighbors around shared events, outreach, and service opportunities that surround families with belonging and support.

Offerings:

- Community events and family gatherings
- Church and congregation partnerships
- Local outreach and awareness drives
- Volunteer service days
- Neighborhood resource connections

From Surviving to Serving

Restored families mentoring the next family in crisis.

The widow you helped last year becomes the person who walks beside a newly grieving widow this year. From Surviving to Serving trains restored families to mentor the next family entering crisis — turning lived experience into hope for someone else.

Offerings:

- Peer-mentor training for program graduates
- Matching with newly-in-crisis families
- Ongoing coaching and pastoral support
- Storytelling and testimony coaching
- Leadership pathway into deeper service
